Saint James Infirmary

It was down by old Joe's barroom on the corner of the square They were serving drinks as usual and the usual crowd was there

On my left stood Big Joe McKennedy and his eyes were bloodshot red And he turned his face to the people these were the very words he said:

I went down to St. James infirmary
And I saw my baby there
She was stretched out on a long white table,
So cool, so sweet and so fair

Let her go, let her go, God bless her Wherever she may be
She may search this whole wide world over Never find a sweeter man as me
