

„San“ oder „Gimme my dime back“

music by Lindsay McPhail & Walter Michels, 1920

lyrics by Blue Ridge Playboys, 1936

1.

I want my dime back. Gimme my change back.

I want my dime back, now!

Give me my ten cents. I want my money.,

I want my dime back now.

Well I've got a girl, she lives across the lake.

She shakes her shimmy like a rattle snake.

I've got a girl who lives up on a hill,

and if she wount do me, her sister will.

I want my dime back. Gimme my change back.

I want my dime back, now.

2.

I want my dime back. Gimme my change back.

I want my dime back, now!

Give me my ten cents. I want my money.,

I want my dime back now

Two and two is four and three and two is five.

Now gimme some of this, if you want some of mine.

The monkey and the bubble were playing in the bath.

The monkey told the bubble, „You play to fast!“

I want my dime back. Gimme my change back.

I want my dime back, now.
